Opening Prayer

Holy One, you call us to be brave,
to stand up in the face of injustice,
to speak out, yelling loudly, when a loud voice is what’s needed.
In this moment, you present us with so many opportunities to be brave.
And yet, you call us to be tender—open to listening to the voice of all others, and open to moments of profound transformation and true reconciliation.

So, we take a deep breath, in and out,
connecting with you, our Source,
Inspiring Spirit, wind of change,
and we ask you to make us brave and keep us tender.

Bless us anew in this time together,
for we know that surely you are here.
We pray this in the name of Jesus,
your Mystery, your Wisdom, your Glory. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Eternal God, we have learned of our faith through those who have devoted their lives to serving you: Abraham and Sarah for their willingness to trust when life was desperate; Moses and Miriam for their commitment to salvation for your people; Mary Magdalene and Simon Peter who followed Jesus even though they were aware of their shortcomings.

All sing

"On Christ, the solid Rock I stand..."
(refrain of "My hope is built" by W.B. Bradbury,

Songs of the Gospel 154)

Your people, Guiding God, have been led to this place, which we call "the Rock," and we give thanks for their stubborn determination and fortitude as they eked out a livelihood through times of hardship and peril. Their trust and faith in your purposes steadied them and gave them the hope that they needed to withstand the pressures of their demanding lives.

All sing

"On Christ, the solid Rock I stand..."

For 90 years, The United Church of Canada has been journeying to serve Jesus with faithfulness. Your Spirit, O God, has challenged and provoked our church to move in new paths. We admit it is not always easy to follow in your ways and we sometimes stumble. We thank you that you lift us up and hold us. We remember those who have comforted and confronted us in our journeys. As we continue to dare to be your people in the days to come, may we lift up the ministry of those who have led us here and help us to continue to be faithful servants.

All sing

"On Christ, the solid Rock I stand..."

We, too, wish to continue in their ways. Lead us on. Help us to accept the mission that you set before us for Christ is indeed the Rock of our Salvation who leads us into life. This we pray in Jesus' name, who taught us to pray together saying, Our Father...

Offering Invitation

God's love calms the stormy recesses of our souls and sends Jesus Christ to be the rock on which we anchor our faith. In gratitude to God, we now present our gifts of faith; may they provide mooring for those in need of safety, shelter, and a firm foundation. Our offerings will now be received.

Prayers of the People

O Sacred One, let us scream and rally in the chaos of uncertainty within which we hear your call. We cry out in pain because things are not all right and we are tired of this fight. We are tired of the disappointment with you and one another, tired of the aching and the grieving, tired of the struggle to keep our head above the water, tired of the statistics, the red budget lines, and the dusty pews, and tired of trying to be faithful in the midst of all this.

Let us blow off some steam. Let us scream and rally in the midst of the chaos of our uncertainty. (a time of personal prayer)

And if this is the place where you are calling us to be, then listen to our voices becoming hoarse and feel our hearts ache with grief. Let us be angry for a while with you and with one another. Let us scream and rally in the midst of the chaos of our uncertainty. (a time of personal prayer)

And if this is where you call us, then be Creator for us again. Draw in our aching and our disappointments, our brokenness and our failures.

Draw in our longing and our faltering, our tired-out and our dead places; draw in the whole of our being and lift us with your clay-caked hands.

(a time of personal prayer)

If this is where you call us, then be Creator for us again.

Set your ancient, passionate lips upon ours and breathe your Spirit into us to renew our lives and your church. Let your breath ignite the flames in our hearts, our passion and our creativity, our sense of adventure and our daring, our visioning and journeying, our commitment to strive toward you and toward one another. If this is where you call us, then be Creator for us once again, lifting us, shaping us, renewing us, and sending us forth so that we take this bold adventure with you to be the church anew. We ask this as followers of the Way of Jesus, and pray as he taught us, Our Father...

Micol Cottrell, Allenford-Park Head P.C., Allenford, Ont.

Prayers of the People

Holy One, our voices rise together in thanksgiving for all the beauty that surrounds us.

For the beauty of space to pause in the summer, at work, at study, or at play, alone, with family, with friends, with creation, with pets, with community, with other pilgrims, all time to proclaim the sacredness of the spiritual practice of prayer.

For the beauty of your creation: the mountains, the prairies, the birds, the forests, the oceans, the tundra, the rivers, and the animals all proclaim the miracle of your handiwork around us.

For the beauty of your people throughout the world: communities gathered in homes, in sanctuaries, in tents, in gymnasiums, in chapels, in cabins, and in sacred spaces, all proclaiming the mystery of faith that draws us ever closer to you. For the beauty of this United Church of Canada: the struggling, the celebrating, the discerning, the laughing, the wondering, the crying, and the praying, all yearning for the wisdom and integrity to be your hands and feet in our communities, struggling for justice and peace.

And finally, for the beauty of the pilgrims preparing for the 42nd General Council, 2015: the youth, the volunteers, the children, the staff, the commissioners, the families, the Moderator, all hoping for a glimpse of your presence and for clarity, wisdom, patience, and faithfulness as they gather on behalf of the United Church in Corner Brook.

Help us on this journey together to be ever mindful of the abundance and the beauty in our lives, in our church, in our communities, and all around us. We ask this in the name of the Christ who walks with us on every path as our companion and our guide, and pray together in the words he taught us, Our Father...

Tracy Murton, Saskatoon, Sask.
